Customer Reviews

Don't waste your time with any other Catechism for children. Clear and concise answers without the modern day wishy washy "accompaniment"

Every Catholic young and old, should own this book!

just as expected thanks

Love this catechism very easy to explain and teach God word to young ones.

Good tool for home school

Bought for a friend, it was a great buy.

For children and young teens, great resource for answers and knowledge of the Catholic faith. I like how frank it is and how it is structured.

I was given a copy of this by my RCIA sponsor. What a wonderful book. While aimed at adolescents, it conveys the truths of God in a uncomplicated and friendly way. No mumbo-jumbo. No modernist equivocation or hand-wringing. Just the truth. Now that it has been a year since I came into the Catholic church, I find that what I remember about this book are the pictures. The pictures in the context of what they are trying to teach. A boy calling to friend that he is going to confession. The ship with the sails of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. That is how I remember these. The images, and the memories they produce, are priceless and will have ETERNAL benefits! You are not too old, too well read or too well catechized NOT to open this up and read it from time to time.
