Liked

My son loves anything related to basketball so I was not surprised he liked these books. I asked him how was the books as he had not mentioned them. His response was "awesome mom". Awesome in a book? it just made my day as a parent. He continued by telling me about the books subjects.... about bullying and also the one when Stat started wearing glasses. My son who has had to deal with both totally related to the stories. He is 8 and a die hard knick fan as well so it was a great present.

My son has read the entire series and he loves this last book also. He mentioned that he has learned tools that he had been applying to deal with bullies and kids with unsportsmanlike behavior during games, practices, and on the playgrounds. Parents have come up to me to commend my son on his behavior. My son tells me that it's because of things he's read in these books. So, I'd definitely recommend these books for young athletes and others.

Great story with excellent examples of real life situations and how to handle. Son enjoys the series and basketball setting!

Great fun basketball associated read. Great way for kids to enjoy reading with this fun basketball kid friendly book. A+
