Anyone interested in the Korean War and the events that occurred during that critical period in the "Cold War", can see for themselves the difficult terrain UN forces had to deal with. Awesome.

Not what I expected. Thought it was a Korean War map. I should have looked more closely at the picture rather than the title.

I bought this to track where I had been in Korea and frame it. It had clear names and is pretty nice for the price I paid. It was also accurate. I am very happy with it.

A little outdated but good history captions.

I was in the military for a few years, and I have always wanted a map of the places that I have visit. Now, I'm looking for a "World Map"

Good Quality with great information.

Shows all of Korea, all the cities. I wish it was a little larger though - still all the cities can be seen/read. Also needs some kind of a way to quickly find the city you are looking for...like numbers down oneside and letters across the top with a booklet of all the cities and their coordinates but it doesn't come with that. Look great in this frame >>>>Ã Å 24x36 Black Picture Frame - 1.25" wide--- Hope this is helpful. The other side of it is all about the war but it's a pretty unorganized patchwork of details.

reminded me nostalgically of the (almost) one year I spent there as a 20-21 year old, naïf & ve and dumb. Had a great time there and met some fine Korean folk. Still miss it!
