Have been going to Disney World for years, but this year my granddaughter wants to head on over to Universal to see Harry Potter. I bought the book, Universal Orlando, and after several days of reading, feel confident that I can maneuver this theme park. Great, easy to follow information.

Well I am very unhappy with this book! I got the 2017 version and was so excited to order the 2018 when it comes out..but it's extremely stupid. First of all its purpose is to compare Orlando to Disney. So that should be the title of the book! So..I guess I should compare this book to the amazing Disney books?? The Disney books with full color, better print, and better maps helped me plan my vaca easily! 2nd, This is the same info on touring plans Web page I can see for free!!! I wanted a book ABOUT THE PARKS to help me plan my vaca! This information may be in there but it is jam packed and crowded in litty bitty print, with so much garbage to read through before getting down to the actual info I need. And really, the EXACT same stuff thats on the website??? I'm sorry, but I do NOT have time to read this crap. Ugh. (Ex. For the flight of the hippogriff: the website says it's a children's roller coaster and compares it to the woody wood pecker one...-umm, dah never been there don't know that one either-...the website also said it appeals to preschool, grade school, adults and seniors. Ok...so is it an actual kiddie ride? Or a kiddie ride that any one can ride, like more of a family ride (like a carousel?). So..I buy the book to answers these questions. And I kid u not...the text in the book is the EXACT same thing! Same 2 paragraphs describing the hippogriff ride, word for word and no pic for clarity. Super annoying.)) Sorry for my rant but I am disappointed. Should have trusted my instinct and just went to the library! It deserves no stars. I wish I could post pics but my phone won't let me, I will try to add some later.

Helped me and my girls make the most of our Orlando trip to Universal and Islands of Adventure's Potter realms.

Have read this cover to cover and done lots of highlighting ingredients! Have gotten so many great tips!

Super handy guidebook chock full of information about everything the park(s) have to offer

This book was great. It was updated for 2017 and covers everything from how to reduce wait times to hotels and touring plans. We used the tips in this book and did not wait in any lines longer than 30 minutes the whole time - during Christmas/New Years with 10/10 crowd calendar. Worth every penny!

Quite helpful. Made a three day stay much smoother.

Definitely worth the money! This book gave me all the details I needed to plan a great day at the parks!! I feel I saved tons of time by avoiding things we could do without and focusing on the rides and shows that best fit our family.
