Customer Reviews

This is a very sweet story that starts off with little Caleb snuggling his mom and telling her "I love you." With that, he wonders about how different baby animals tell their moms they love them. The book then goes on with his mother telling him the ways each of the animals mentioned tell their mom and/or dad they love them and (sometimes) how the parent tells them back. It's a beautiful story of love and it inspires the kids how to show their love. We enjoy the artwork in this book a lot as well. The pictures are adorable and seeing animal babies is always grand. This is a wonderful, feel-good and inspiring book.

This is a cute bedtime story for toddlers and preschoolers. Little Caleb asks his mom if animals show love for one another. She responds by telling him a story about how love is communicated within animal families. Children will delight in the rhymes and illustrations of affection displayed by animals like elephants, deer, bears, and kittens. It also communicates the message of how important it is to express love within the human family. Recommended as a bedtime story or read aloud for children ages two through five.

How Animals Say I Love You by Michael Gordon Colorful children's book about different animals and how they say I love you. Very colorful pages on left side of the book and words are to the right hand pages. The mother starts out by showing her child about a little giraffe calf and how he shows his mother they love her. Elephant, deer, puppy, bear, pig, cat, and a calf are also shown.

Many of the rhymes were a stretch, and some didn't rhyme at all. The reading rhythm was clumsy, and some of the sentences were constructed just to force a rhyme and not to tell a good story. The illustrations were pretty cheesy looking. It failed on multiple levels.

My daughter was so happy while I was reading the story to her the other night. I also found myself smiling while seeing her having so much fun with the pictures. Very nice book! How I wish all kids get to hear the story of How Animals Say I Love You! So adorable!

The story has a sweet meaning to the book, but the rhymes were awkward at times. Illustrations are cute!

Sweet for a bed time story or any time of day. Nice words and pictures and simple to read thank you.

The pictures are lovely, and the text is endearing. But I don't understand why the text and pictures are not on the same page on my Kindle Fire. That means that my daughter can't see what I am reading about. If that were changed, this would be a 5-star book.
