Synopsis

Fifty Places to Ski and Snowboard Before You Die[®]; the 10th book in the popular Fifty Places series[®]; takes readers to some of the world's most inspiring skiing/snowboarding destinations: the Chugach Mountains (Alaska); Aspen, Crested Butte, and Steamboat Springs (Colorado); Tuckerman Ravine (New Hampshire); Rusutsu (Japan); Chamonix (France); Portillo (Chile); and Whistler Blackcomb (British Columbia). Based on interviews with leading experts, the book chronicles the rich history of these sports and the people who have mastered them, including Tommy Moe, Jonny Moseley, Billy Kidd, and Greg Harms. Above all, Santella provides readers with the gorgeous scenery, the glamorous ambiance, and the always thrilling experience of visiting mountains from the Alps to the Rockies, whether it's apr s-ski in Cortina or helicopter rides into virgin Alaskan powder. Praise for Fifty Places to Ski and Snowboard Before You Die[®]: Even the reader who gets no farther than the couch can feel transported to the snow-covered peaks, mogul fields, and sparkling expanses sculpted by the book's avalanche of quirky nuggets, insider tips, and historical perspectives . . . [®] Reuters.com[®]: Whether you're an expert looking to hit the double diamond moguls or a beginner who wants a gentle slope just in case stopping is an issue, these spots have a little something for everyone. This is such a great book! It not only offers valuable information and suggestions on places to go skiing but it gives beautiful pictures as well. The only suggestion I have is for it to have a picture of every destination mentioned. On some of the locations it's only text and no pictures. It makes me want to plan a ski trip!

Great pictures and descriptions. My 13 year old son hates to read but loves snowboarding, this book was perfect because he was interested in going to all these places.

Beautiful pictures..

Inspiring

Great book for anyone that loves riding mountains. Not a guide but it can start the dreams

A book to help put together every skier's bucket list!!
