Franklin Says I Love You

Synopsis

In this Franklin Classic Storybook, our hero is a very lucky turtle. He has the best friends, the best little sister, the best goldfish and, of course, the best mother. But when he discovers that his mother's birthday is coming up, he can't find the best present. After giving it some serious thought, Franklin decides to do everything for his mom. On the morning of her birthday he takes her breakfast in bed, makes a brooch, draws a picture and cuts fresh flowers from the garden! And then Franklin gives his mom a great big hug and says, "I love you?" --- which is, of course, the best gift of all.

I'm not sure why this book gets so much popularity? It's dull and monotonous. I didn't like it and my 2.5yo was even more bored than me!

I think my grandson will enjoy this book, however, I was disappointed that it was not a hard back book. The cover and book is very thin. I do not buy anything but hard back book for him since they are more durable and last for many years. You can be sure I will ask in the future before I buy.

This was the perfect gift for a 4 year old.

Cute story with a great lesson. Franklin wants to buy something for his moms birthday but everything is too expensive or not right. And his mom couldn't careless, she is most touched but Franklin telling her he loves her.

A lovely warm book. My grand kids loved the story and there is a great lesson in the story about the importance of expressing love.

This is a great book and fun to read for whole family! Me and my family really enjoy reading it!

The children loved the book
