"MacKinnon's Ethics is the perfect introductory text. It presents a balance of theory and application, and a balance of historical and contemporary readings. It provides a wealth of up-to-date empirical data on all of the topics discussed. And on top of that, it's written in a clear, engaging style." "It is rare to find a text that provides an excellent combination of both ethical theory and applied ethics in a single volume that is concise, highly readable, and quite informative. MacKinnon's text is right on target!"

Barbara MacKinnon is a professor emerita of philosophy at the University of San Francisco. During her 30 years of teaching, her instruction and writing focused primarily on the history of ethics and contemporary ethical issues. She enjoys reading widely, playing the piano, and traveling. Andrew Fiala is chair and professor of philosophy at Fresno State University, as well as director of the university's Ethics Center. His scholarly writing focuses on war and peace, politics, religion, and ethics. He also is a columnist for the Fresno Bee.

Great price on here ($200 on my college website), shipped in time for class like I requested (ordered it a week before class started), but as a book Ethics sucks. It's basically sociology part 2, not philosophy. It's all propaganda that doesn't really teach you anything of value. So there. I only needed it for my philosophy class but intend to shred it and use it for kitty litter as was the fate of my sociology book.

Came on time before the semester started. No ripped or folded pages. Good quality still.

On point! Great price and shipped quick!

It is great to rent books that return them back
