A Year On Raro: Two Faces Of Paradise

Synopsis

One Year in Raro is a memoir in the genre of midlife adventures in foreign places - Under the Tuscan Sun, A Year in Provence - but with island flavors and a tropical twist. From an unexplained calling to a small island in the heart of Polynesia and introductions to endearing island characters, to transformation through assimilating island culture, my relocation to Rarotonga (Cook Islands) to remodel an historic house on the lagoon illustrates the sunny face of paradise - until an attack in my home shakes me up and offers a peek at the underbelly of this unforgettable island. I survive the freefall to a soft landing on yet another paradise.
