Gr 2-5—The crime-fighting Lunch Lady has been canned by the dastardly new superintendent, and a slew of thugs have united to take over the school in her absence. The Breakfast Bunch, Lunch Lady, and her cohort Betty must team up in this final volume to save Thompson Brook School for good. The only downside to this book is that it's the last in the series. Fans will eat it up and still be hungry for more from the heroic Lunch Lady and her pals.

JARRETT J. KROSOCZKA is the author and illustrator of eight other Lunch Lady graphic novels, as well as numerous popular picture books, including Ollie the Purple Elephant, Punk Farm, Punk Farm on Tour, Max for President, and Baghead.

If you have a reluctant reader this might be a series for your child. All of my children (girl 11, boy 9, boy 6) enjoy this series but especially my 9 year old boy. This series really got him into reading on his own. What's not to love about a Lunch Lady who is a secret ninja master?

This was a continuation of the previous books. It ties in the story line. My 7 year old daughter loves the Lunch Lady character, especially the food gadgets Betty developed.

Funny

My kids love this entire series, and this finale didn't disappoint. Villians from previous books re-appear, delighting kids who have faithfully read the earlier books. There's humor here for adults to enjoy as well, or at least for those who went to schools like the one depicted in Krosoczka's' graphic novel universe.

ok

My son (he's 9 now, but discovered the series when he was 6) reads and re-reads these and when friends come over, they often can't put it down and end up wanting to borrow a Lunch Lady book. This one is the same enjoyable experience to be read time and time again.

My son LOVES these books! He's always been a good reader but once he got into this series, he couldn't put them down!

Funny story! My granddaughter enjoyed. She looks forward to each new book in the series. They're my "surprise" for her.
